Re: United States v. Parfait Mutimura
19 Cr 592 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield,

I write with the consent of the government (AUSA Jun Xiang) to request an adjournment of the sentencing hearing currently scheduled for June 9, 2020 and an enlargement of time for the filing of sentencing submissions. The reason for the adjournment request is two-fold. First, the defense is awaiting some additional documents which are necessary for the defense sentencing submission. Second, given the current global health crisis and the corresponding standing orders from Chief Judge McMahon, an in person sentencing hearing would not be able to take place on June 9. Both Mr. Mutimura and counsel believe that a remote proceeding would not be appropriate for his hearing.

I request that the sentencing be adjourned for at least two months. This is the first request for an adjournment of sentencing. I

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/
